NATIONAL SECURITY ACTION MEMORANDUM NO. 239

TO: The Director, U. S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency
The Committee of Principals

SUBJECT: U. S. Disarmament Proposals

1. Discussions in the 18 Nation Disarmament Conference at Geneva on both general and complete disarmament and a nuclear test ban treaty have unfortunately resulted in almost no progress. There has been no serious discussion of general and complete disarmament for some time. While discussions of a test ban treaty have shown important developments since the beginning of the 18 Nation Conference, they are now stalled.

2. I have in no way changed my views of the desirability of a test ban treaty or the value of our proposals on general and complete disarmament. Further, the events of the last two years have increased my concern for the consequences of an un-checked continuation of the arms race between ourselves and the Soviet Bloc.

3. We now expect the 18 Nation Disarmament Committee in Geneva to recess shortly for six weeks to two months. I should like the interval to be used for an urgent re-examination of the possibilities of new approaches to significant measures short of general and complete disarmament which it would be in the interest of the United States to propose in the resumed session of the Geneva Conference. ACDA will, in accordance with its statutory responsibilities, take the leadership in this effort and coordinate with the other agencies concerned through the usual procedures of the Committee of Principals. I should like to review the results at an appropriate time in the process.

MEMORANDUM FOR: The Executive Director

SUBJECT : Action Memorandum A-243

REFERENCE : NSAM 239 (Disarmament Proposals)

1. The Office of National Estimates has undertaken to meet your request for a study of probable Soviet responses to new U. S. disarmament initiatives, in consultation with the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency. ACDA has informed us that the draft proposals will not be ready until sometime after the first of June.

2. I have discussed the problem with [] who states that paragraphs 22 and 23 of NIE 11-63 can serve as an interim response to the NSAM and that, on the assumption that ACDA's proposals will be available the first week in June, a formal response could be made by the middle of the month.

3. We would therefore like to have the suspense date on Action Memorandum A-243 extended to 15 June.
